I have worked directly with Brett Myers in a support role for Swarthmore Co-op. He found excellent candidates, he kept in close communication with the search committee, and I felt heard and respected by him at every step.

- Carolee Colter, Management consultant for food co-ops and the natural foods industry, CDS Consulting

[The Carlisle Group] quickly absorbed our co-op values, and sent us multiple candidates bringing various combinations of the qualities we had requested. The general manager we have hired is preferred unanimously by the store staff and the board of directors. Thanks to Brett's invaluable help, we are entering a new chapter of cooperative grocery lead by another strong general manager.

- Kate Moss, Search Committee/Board Member at The Common Market

Working with Brett was a pleasure. He is knowledgeable about our industry and the co-op sector specifically. Brett was able to find qualified candidates quickly and efficiently for my client. I found him to be professional as well as friendly, easy to communicate with and quick to respond. I think any co-op would be in good hands working with Brett on a General Manager search.
