Talent Acquisition Department Guidance

If you have an internal talent acquisition department, your organization may not need TCG to recruit new employees, but you may require some additional guidance on the best way to approach the market and retain the talent you need. Whether your plan is to create a new department or improve a current one; our Search Consultants can help you outline the details regarding what positions you would like to fill and which positions might be more easily filled by a third party.

Since recruitment is our bread and butter, we can walk you through our tried and true process from creating job descriptions to posting ads and the interview process. We'll also discuss Applicant Tracking Systems -- the value of using them and the best way to use them effectively.

Once you've met with our team, you'll either be able to successfully fill any open position within your organization on your own or, at the very least, with the assistance of a third-party firm. Either way, you'll have the tools you need to create the team you desire.
